

SemaConnect provides electrical vehicle (EV) amenities to the North American commercial, residential property, and fleet markets, and is the #2 provider of L2 (i.e., standard) EV chargers across North America with a client base of over 1,400 clients.

Our partnership with the Trilantic North America energy team has enabled us to further scale our platform, bolster our industry relationships, and serve the growing population of electric vehicle drivers. The team quickly understood our vision and our potential and brings an exceptional history of working alongside entrepreneurs to drive growth.

2021 Milestones

EV ADVOCACY

Mahi Reddy, Founder & CEO, was invited to an event with Vice President Kamala Harris to promote the EV charging industry, demonstrate the company's technology, and discuss the future of EVs. SemaConnect believes Americans need smart, affordable, and accessible EV charging stations, and supports the bipartisan Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act that promotes clean air, new jobs, and transportation electrification.

CARING FOR THE SEMACONNECT FAMILY

SemaConnect won Comparably's Best Company Compensation 2021 award. The company takes pride in offering comprehensive and robust benefits such as 100% employer-paid health, dental, vision, and life insurance, and free access to an Employee Assistance Program. Employees have expressed, "Our benefit package is outstanding. We receive 100% company paid benefits for both you AND your family. That is unheard of!" and "It meant a great deal to me having the EV benefit and utilizing that to pay off my car. I also like that we do not have to use part of our paycheck to pay for health insurance."

(“Fund V North America” or “Fund V NA”), Trilantic Capital Partners VI North America L.P. (“Fund VI North America” or “Fund VI NA”) and Trilantic Energy Partners II (North America) L.P. (“TEP II North America” or “TEP II NA”) (each such fund, a “Fund”), is provided for information purposes only and is non-binding. This case study is not being provided to you and was not prepared with the intention of constituting, “Advertisements” (within the meaning of Rule 206(4)-1 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended). As such, this case study is not intended to be used or relied upon as, and must not be used or relied upon as, an Advertisement. The information contained herein is not, and may not be, relied on in any manner as legal, tax or investment advice, or as an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy an interest in any of the Funds (which are closed to new investments) or any other security. If such offer is made, it will only be made by means of an offering memorandum, which would contain material information (including certain risks of investing in such issuer) not contained in this document and which would supersede and qualify in its entirety the information set forth in this document. Statements contained in this report that are not historical facts are based on current expectations, estimates, projections, opinions and beliefs of Trilantic North America. Such statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, and undue reliance should not be placed thereon. In addition, certain information contained herein represents or is based upon forward-looking statements or information, including ESG-based initiatives, and while Trilantic North America believes such information is based on reasonable assumptions, forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain and actual events or results may differ from those projected. Therefore, undue reliance should not be placed on such information. In addition, while Trilantic NA seeks to integrate certain environmental, social, and governance (“ESG”) factors into its investment process in accordance with its ESG policy and subject to its fiduciary duty and any applicable legal, regulatory or contractual requirements, there is no guarantee that the Firm’s ESG policy is successful or that its investments create a positive ESG impact. In addition, applying ESG factors to investment decisions is qualitative and subjective by nature, and there is no guarantee that the criteria utilized by the Firm or any judgment exercised by the Firm reflects the beliefs or values of any particular investor. There are significant differences in interpretations of what positive ESG characteristics mean by region, industry and issue, and these interpretations are rapidly evolving. In addition, statements in this case study are based on Trilantic North America’s views at the time that this case study was drafted and do not represent a commitment to ensure that specific targets, policies, programs, or other forward-looking actions are achieved. Certain information contained herein is based on or derived from information independently compiled by the applicable portfolio company or a third-party advisor to Trilantic North America, a Fund and/or such portfolio company, and such information has not been independently verified or assured by Trilantic North America. While Trilantic North America believes that such information is accurate and that the sources from which it has been obtained are reliable, none of Trilantic North America nor any of its affiliates or the Funds take responsibility for such information, nor can they can guarantee the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of such information. Further, the information set forth herein does not and will not, in any way, waive, limit, or restrict the rights of Trilantic North America, a Fund’s general partner or any of their respective affiliates and related persons under the applicable definitive fund documents, including without limitation any confidentiality, indemnity and exculpation provisions. Information herein is as of 5/15/2023, provided that all ESG metrics and other metrics are for calendar year 2022, in each case, except as otherwise noted, and none of Trilantic NA or any affiliate has any obligation to update the information set forth herein.
